

To whom it may concern. XM radio is the only way to keep up with the weather when I go hunting in West Texas, as you know there is nothing out their. It is impossible to pick up any local radio stations out their. I like being able to check the Weather while I'm traveling.